Purpose of role

The person appointed will be expected to engage in high quality research in the areas of Organisational Behaviour and Human Resource Management. Specifically, the post holder’s research will be aligned to one or more of the four strategic research priorities of the Work, Employment and Organisation Research Group (WEORG). Further details of these priorities can be found on the WEORG website: https://www.nottingham.ac.uk/business/who-we-are/centres-and-institutes/weorg/research.aspx

The post holder will also contribute to teaching in the areas of Organisational Behaviour and Human Resource Management on the range of programmes offered by the School at undergraduate, postgraduate and executive levels. The post holder will also be required to make an appropriate contribution to administration.

The University of Nottingham is focused on embedding equality, diversity and inclusion in all that we do. As part of this, we welcome a diverse population to join our workforce and therefore encourage applicants from all communities, particularly those with protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010.
The University is a signatory of the Declaration on Research Assessment (DORA). As such we commit to focus on the scientific content of publications (where requested or provided as part of the recruitment and selection process) as a basis for review of quality, and consideration of value and impact of research conducted, rather than any proxy measures such as Journal Impact Factor.
Expectations and behaviours

The University has developed a clear set of core expectations and behaviours that our people should be demonstrating in their work, and as ambassadors of the University’s strategy, vision and values. The following are essential to the role:

Valuing people
Is always equitable and fair and works with integrity. Proactively looks for ways to develop the team and is comfortable providing clarity by explaining the rationale behind decisions.

Taking ownership
Is highly self-aware, looking for ways to improve, both taking on board and offering constructive feedback. Inspires others to take accountability for their own areas.

Forward thinking
Driven to question the status quo and explore new ideas, supporting the team to “lead the way” in terms of know-how and learning.

Professional pride
Sets the bar high with quality systems and control measures in place. Demands high standards of others identifying and addressing any gaps to enhance the overall performance.

Always inclusive
Ensures accessibility to the wider community, actively encouraging inclusion and seeking to involve others. Ensures others always consider the wider context when sharing information making full use of networks and connections.
